The Village is a registry of programs, resources and services for parents in the community.

Distributed monthly, The Village is

- ✓ A valuable resource for parents in the community
- ✓ An indispensable referral tool for service providers who work with parents
- ✓ A cooperative network to increase access to and knowledge of parenting services

Our goal is to gather, compile and share information linking parents and service providers. We value your feedback on how this resource can assist you in the best possible way!

Located at 302-1488 Fourth Avenue
Phone: 250-277-0100

The Parents Legal Centre (PLC) is a service provided by the Legal Services Society. The Centre helps parents (or persons in a parental role) address social worker's concerns about their children's safety early on and collaboratively to avoid a trial in court.

- Support by a team of lawyer and advocate;
- Information and advice on options for resolving child protection issues as early as possible;
- Legal advice and representation at collaborative processes such as mediation, family case planning conferences and other meetings;
- Information and support throughout the process;
- Legal advice and representation at uncontested hearings; and
- Assistance connecting to other services, including counselling and housing.

PLC services are available to people who meet LSS's financial eligibility guidelines. They assist families prior to and during their involvement with the Ministry of Children and Family Development.

Victim Services Program

The Prince George Native Friendship Centre's Victim Services program provides support for our Prince George community members, who may be struggling after an incident of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, or human trafficking. We offer a genuine, caring and empathetic approach to being present with a survivor, to hear his or her story and to help with the process of moving toward healing. This can include supporting community members during their time attending court, helping to navigate the complexities of the legal system, and helping to find resources that can assist in developing tools for personal wellness. This program supports both Indigenous and Non-Indigenous community members with the challenges that may surface following survival of a crime, including court orientation, victim impact statements, court accompaniment, liaising with crown counsel and the RCMP, providing general court information, and accessing the "Crime Victim Assistance Program (CVAP)". We work collaboratively with and can refer out to counseling, lawyers, multicultural supports, court workers, housing, literacy, human rights complaints services and police complaints services. ### Community Care Licensing

The purpose of the Community Care Licensing program is to make sure that licensed facilities are healthy and safe environments for adults, youth and children in care. We represent the public and families who rely on care providers to look after their loved ones. Daycares or residential care facilities that provide care and supervision to three or more children, who aren't related to the caregiver, need a community care facility license. If you or someone you know is providing a type of care that may require a license, please feel free to contact us. Northern Health Licensing Officers are pleased to assist with the application process. More information can be found on our website at

<http://www.northernhealth.ca/YourHealth/CommunityCareLicensing.aspx>
